Use the following instructions to request access (and register) for the EPA Lab Compendium at http://www.epa.gov/compendium
Step 1

Click the Register button.

NOTE: All requests for access to the EPA Lab Compendium must be reviewed and approved before users have full access to the system.

To enter the EPA Lab Compendium as a registered user, enter your User Name and Password into the login page and click the Login button.
Step 2

On the Register screen, enter all required information. Required information is marked with an asterisk (*).

Fill in your Registration Information

Enter the following information:

- Last Name
- First Name
- Middle Initial - (optional)
- User Name - You will need to create your own user name. This is what you will use to enter the EPA Lab Compendium.
- Password - This is the password you will use to enter the EPA Lab Compendium. Follow the instructions next to the entry field for the requirements to create a valid password.
- Confirm Password - Reenter the password you entered in the first password field.
- Requested Role - Your “role” allows you to view the sections of the EPA Lab Compendium necessary for the type of searches you wish to perform. For assistance in deciding which role to choose, click the What is this? link below the field. Use the drop-down menu to select the role you wish to request.
- Lab Entry checkbox - EPA Lab Compendium contains information about laboratories. If you will be using EPA Lab Compendium to edit information about individual laboratories, or to add new laboratories to the EPA Lab Compendium, check this box. Selecting this box is required if you are requesting the Lab User role.
Step 3

Filling in your Contact Information and the Terms of Use

Enter the following information:

- Organization Name - (optional) The name of the organization you represent. It can be your laboratory, State or Federal agency, company, etc.
- Address - Your organization’s mailing address.
- City - Part of your organization’s mailing address.
- State - Part of your organization’s mailing address. Use the drop-down menu to select.
- ZIP Code - Part of your organization’s mailing address.
- Country - Part of your organization’s mailing address. Use the drop-down menu to select.
- Email - Enter the email address you would like to use to receive information from the EPA Lab Compendium administrator.
- Phone - Your telephone number. Enter the numbers as shown in the example below the field. Do not enter dashes or parenthesis. Enter the extension in the ext field, if applicable.

When you have finished filling out this page, click the SUBMIT button at the bottom of the page to continue.

- Read the Terms of Use.
- If you agree to the Terms of Use, click the I Agree button at the bottom of the page.

NOTE: If you do not agree to the Terms of Use, you will not be able to access the EPA Lab Compendium. Click the logout link in the top right hand corner to exit.
Step 4

NOTE: This step is only applicable to users who have selected the “Lab Entry” checkbox in the Registration Information section.

If you have selected the Lab User role, the Select Associated Labs screen will appear. Use any of the links to the right of the Laboratory drop-down menu to enter and/or review laboratory information.

- Request access to select laboratory is used to request access to the laboratory displayed using the Laboratory drop-down menu.
- New laboratory registration is used to add a new laboratory to the EPA Lab Compendium.
- View/Update Laboratory Information is used to view a list of laboratories you have requested access to.

TIP: For complete instructions on how to use this screen, click the help link in the upper right hand corner of the screen.
Step 5

If you did not select the “Lab Entry” box, the EPA Lab Compendium home screen displays.

NOTE: To access the EPA Lab Compendium home screen from the Select Associated Labs screen, click the home link at the top of the screen.

While your request for access to the EPA Lab Compendium is being processed, you will have limited access to the system. The following options will be available:

- Manage allows you to update your user and, if applicable, laboratory information.
- Logout exits the EPA Lab Compendium.
- Help displays context-sensitive online help information.
- Contact us provides contact information for the EPA Lab Compendium Help Desk.
